Taipei, Taiwan – This is the sixth year, Wind Music has organized the World Music Festival @ Taiwan (WMF@TW), and hosted by the Bureau Audiovisual and Music Industry Development, Ministry of Culture. In the past, the festival had gathered 215,000 attendees, 26 international performance groups, 52 Taiwanese performance groups, 42 international curators, and 482 bazaars. This year, the theme is “Music is Everywhere”, a means of connecting to the world music. It takes place at the Taipei Dajia Riverside Park from October 14-16, 2022.

The 2022 WMF@TW has launched phenomenal and exclusively programme to give back to its fans, such as, Pei-Shu Huang x Taipei Philharmonic Chamber Choir, Musicians' House x Over the Top, Sunset Yoga - YK Band, and GIMA trio-Alex x David Chen x WAKA. The team has set everything to meet world-class music festival level. Performances will be split to the Earth and Island Stage, with over 20 renowned music groups to rock both stages. The Line-up includes recent multiple awards winners, lilium and Paudull, Puuluup, Alena Murang, and much more, it will bring the mind-blowing sensual pleasures to the publics.

2022 WMF@TW is full of exciting activities, such as music/dance workshops, lectures, showcases, and Bazaars to enjoy. The music/dance workshops will be led by international artists and demonstrate its exotic and festive cultures to attendees. Each year, the festival invites curators/managers from around the world to give lectures on trendy music topics, moreover, it will be an impeccable opportunity to build professional network. Bazaars are inspired by music from around the world, displaying music, arts/crafts, and food. These activities all together create a new kind of experience that weaves audio, visual, and aesthetic aspects together.

The World Music Festival @ Taiwan is where people can get away from their daily lives for a while and bask in music from around the world! The festival creates a place where everyone, regardless of age, race, and gender can share joy and gratitude by taking a break from the mad rush of everyday life.
