Earlier this month, Australia RnB Singer Caiti Baker dropped her newest album Under Our Galaxy via Wind Music Intl' in Asia (Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, Korea, Japan, Hong Kong, Macau, China). Taking lessons of the past and inspirations for the future, bringing both together in a way that has created something that simply screams "Caiti", Larakia-based artists present her new album Under Our Galaxy.

The album exists as an homage to those heat-driven RnB, neo-soul, and hip-hop moments that play a crucial role in Caiti's formative growth as a young artist. An album for homegirls, the homeboys, the lovers past and present, and empowerment that comes with coming into oneself; Under Our Galaxy is Caiti at her most fluid and expressive. Under Our Galaxy sees Caiti step further into a spotlight that feels just right for her at this time in her life. Embracing life, love, and intimacy in this new phase of adulthood has become reflected in her music in the purest and most exciting ways – now Caiti is ready to share it.

The 7-track album features the Taiwu Ancient Ballads Troupe on “Slow Down”. Caiti had to pull some strings to get in touch with its artist manager from Wind Music Intl’ when the Taiwu performed at the WOMADelaide in 2019. They were instantly singing to each other in the hotel lobby. Caiti flew to Taiwan many times and was supposed to record the song in 2020. Following the pandemic, Caiti watched the Taiwu’s entire recording session via Instagram chat and FaceTime. During the recording, Wind Music Intl’s rep told Caiti, “I find it very interesting that you smile so much while watching the girls sing!” After the recording session, Caiti learned the Taiwu’s various vocal parts of meaning and recorded her own tracks to their parts just as the Taiwu learned the English parts. “Slow Down” presents the collaboration beyond language, race, and generation, this song once proved music connects people and everything is possible.

“This song is one of the greatest musical achievements of my career, and I’m beyond proud of the song, the writers and producers, the choir, and the communities that made the song happen,” said Caiti.

Under Our Galaxy has been released globally on May 13, 2022.

The album is available on Apple Music Store, Spotify, Bandcamp, and other music streaming platforms.
