Released on Tuesday, Sep 12, 2023

Ida Elina was born in Espoo, Finland, where the origin of the Kantele, she has grown into a perfectly skilled modern-pop Kantele player. She is a master in transforming different timbres and using complicated skills, unleashing the features of Kantele to the fullest. As an important dedicator to cultural revival and Kantele promotion, Ida has been invited to several national and international events regularly, such as touring in the USA, Germany, and Japan, and performing in Belgium, France, and Canada.

The style of Ida's works focuses mainly on classical music, pop music, and gospel music. She has released four albums since 2015, including "Hello World", "Bright Christmas", "Game of My Life" and "Capital Letters", all leaving the audience with an unforgettable impression. The new album features "Capital Letters" and "Lighthouse", which is composed of Ida's own stories about how she confronted the epidemic and frustration, presented by Kantele and her fascinating voice. It will definitely blow your mind!

"Now her popovers have revolutionized the way we understand Kantele music"
- Helsingin Sanomat.

It is not the first time Ida has toured in Asia, but this time she will come with her new album full of bright energy to us, like she said "When the rough winds are raging with the ruthless drums, these songs will bring you hope and love. I appreciate that you become a part of my journey, and thanks for all the likes!" We believe that the Queen will showcase her gentle vocals along with the distinctive ringing sound of the Kantele, and inspire the hearts of music lovers through her performance in Asia.
